6. CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PLAN

Contributions made by or on behalf of the Subscriber to the Plan in respect of a Beneficiary may be made periodically or by way of a lump sum payment in money or other property up to the maximum life time amount set out in section 204.9(1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada). A contribution to the plan in respect of an individual who is a beneficiary only if the individual's SIN is provided to the promoter before the contribution is made and the individual is resident in Canada, or where the contribution is made by way of a transfer from another RESP under which the individual was a beneficiary immediately before the transfer. A contribution into the plan in respect of a beneficiary is permitted only if a) the beneficiary has not reached 31 years of age before the time of the contributions, or b) the contribution is made by way of transfer from another RESP that allows more than one beneficiary at any one time. The Subscriber shall be responsible for ensuring that the total of all Contributions made to the Plan in respect of a Beneficiary for a year shall not exceed such amount as the Applicable Tax Legislation may permit from time to time. No Payment may be made to the Plan by or on behalf of the Subscriber after the 31st year following the year in which the Plan is entered into. The only contributions which are permitted are those made in respect of a Beneficiary by the Subscriber or by way of a transfer from another registered education savings plan, as per section 204.9(5) of the ITA. The contributions to the Plan may attract a Grant based on the percentage of your contributions and subject to the maximums set by the legislation covering the Grants from time to time. These will not reduce your contribution limit. We will apply for the Grants periodically when appropriate and will keep records of the Grants received and the contributions which attracted the Grants. The Grants may be used as part of an Educational Assistance Payment. However, Grant amounts not used for this purpose must be returned to the Government of Canada. Repayment will also be required in cases where funds are paid out of the Plan as a refund of contributions or an accumulated income payment or any other situation required by law. We may provide any information about the Plan which is required by the Government of Canada body which administers the Grants.

7. INVESTMENTS

We will tell you what investment options are available. In turn, you must tell us how you want the Contributions invested.

You may transfer funds from one investment to another, provided this is permitted by the terms of the investment and by us. To do so, you must provide us instructions in writing. As you have a self-directed ESP, it is your responsibility to choose your investments. You must invest the Contributions in investments permitted by the Applicable Tax Legislation and permitted by us. We will not be responsible for determining whether any investment is a qualified investment. If we need information about any investment, you agree to give it to us. We may, however, decline to make any particular investment for any reason. You are solely responsible for any additional taxes or penalties under Applicable Tax Legislation, if your investment choices cause such taxes or penalties to be imposed.

We will keep legal ownership and possession of the investment in your ESP in whatever form it determines.

All interest and income earned by your investments will be credited to your ESP.

8. BENEFICIARIES

The plan provides that the promoter shall, within 90 days after an individual becomes a beneficiary under the plan, notify the individual (or, where the individual is under 19 years of age at that time and either ordinarily resides with a parent of the individual or is maintained by a public primary caregiver of the individual, that parent or public primary caregiver) in writing of the existence of the plan and the name and address of the subscriber in respect of the plan.

For an individual to be designated as a beneficiary under the plan, the individual's SIN must be provided to the promoter before the designation is made, and the individual must be a resident in Canada when the designation is made. However, an educational savings plan may permit a non-resident individual who does not have a SIN to be designated as a beneficiary under the plan provided that such designation is made in conjunction with a transfer of property from another RESP under which the individual was a beneficiary immediately before the transfer.

9. EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE AND OTHER PAYMENTS

Upon receipt of a written direction from the Subscriber in the form the Promoter requires, subject to the Applicable Tax Legislation, the Promoter shall transfer or otherwise realize the Plan Property to the extent necessary to:

- (a) make Educational Assistance Payments to an individual enrolled as either a full time student or a part time student in a Qualifying Educational Program at a Post-secondary Educational Institution or is a student at a Postsecondary Educational Institution enrolled in a Qualifying Educational Program and has at the time a mental or physical impairment the effects of which on the individual have been certified in writing by a person described in the Income Tax Act (Canada), to the effect that the person could not reasonably be expected to be a full-time student. In addition, the individual must have satisfied the conditions set out above for at least thirteen weeks in the twelve month period that ends at that time for the proposed payment or the total payments made, including the proposed one from any RESP held by the Promoter will not exceed $5,000 for the twelve month period which ends at that time, or such other amount as the Minister designated for the purpose of the Canada Education Savings Act approves in writing with respect to the individual;
- (b) make payments to, or to a trust in favor of, a Designated Educational Institution;
- (c) make payments to a trust that irrevocably holds money or property pursuant to a RESP transferred to it for any of the purposes set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 9; or
- (d) make payments to the subscriber other than a refund of contributions. An accumulated income payment made to an original subscriber can be rolled over to a RRSP of the original subscriber or to a spousal RRSP of the original subscriber as permitted by the Applicable Tax Legislation. This rollover is limited by section 204.94 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and the Subscriber's RRSP room.
- (e) a payment may also qualify as an EAP at the time it is made if the beneficiary is at least sixteen years of age and is enrolled part time as a student in a specified educational program. For the thirteen week period of enrollment in part time studies preceding the payment of an EAP, the maximum amount that can be paid to a beneficiary is the lesser of $2,500 and the total of all allowable expenses.

(f) An RESP beneficiary is eligible to receive an EAP for up to six months after ceasing to be enrolled in a qualifying program, provided the beneficiary would have qualified while still enrolled.

An accumulated income payment means any distribution from a registered education savings plan (RESP), excluding a refund of payments, repayment of amounts (and the payment of amounts related to that repayment) under the Canada Education Savings Act or under a program administered pursuant to an agreement entered into under section 12 of that Act, an educational assistance payment (EAP), a payment to an designated educational institution, or a transfer to another RESP. AIPS usually include earnings on contribution made to the plan, and may include earnings on the Grants. AIPS may be allowed, after 1997, only if:

- a) the payment is made to, or on behalf of, a subscriber under the plan who is resident in Canada when the payment is made,
- b) the payment is not made jointly to, or on behalf of, more than one subscriber and
- c) any of:
 - (1) the payment is made after the 9th year that follows the year in which the plan was entered into and each individual (other than a deceased individual) who is or was a beneficiary under the plan has attained 21 years of age before the payment is made and is not, when the payment is made, eligible under the plan to receive an educational assistance payment,
 - (2) the payment is made in the 35th year following the year in which the plan is entered into, or
 - (3) each individual who has a beneficiary under the plan is deceased when the payment is made.

The Minister may, on written application of the promoter of a registered education savings plan, waive the application of the conditions in the above clause 2.(c)(1) in respect of the plan where a beneficiary under the plan suffers from a severe and prolonged mental impairment that prevents, or can reasonably be expected to prevent, the beneficiary from enrolling in a qualifying educational program at a post-secondary educational institution.

The Promoter shall determine whether any conditions precedent to the payment of any amount pursuant to this Section 8 have been satisfied and such determination shall be final and binding on the Subscriber or a Beneficiary. All payments of any kind made from the Plan will be net of any applicable withholding taxes and fees and charges payable hereunder.

10. REFUND OF CONTRIBUTIONS

Upon receipt of written notice in the form required by us and subject to the Applicable Tax Legislation and the terms hereof, the Subscriber shall be entitled to:

- (a) receive a refund from the Plan at any time and from time to time in an amount (the "Contribution"), net of any applicable fees and charges hereunder, not exceeding the lesser of (i) the value of the property held in the Plan at that time and (ii) the difference between the aggregate of all Subscriber contributions made to the Plan prior to that time and all refunds of Subscriber contributions made from the Plan prior to that time; or

If the Promoter is required to exercise such discretion, it may make an additional charge against the Plan. If the Plan Property is not sufficient to fully make any such payment or reimbursement, the Subscriber and the Beneficiary shall be responsible for any shortfall as provided in Section 21 hereof.

14. VOTING RIGHTS

If we have not received prior to the Termination Date written notice with respect to a refund of Subscriber contributions as provided in Section 9 hereof, the Promoter shall hold the balance of such liquidation proceeds, net of any applicable fees and charges hereunder, for and in the name of the Subscriber in a non-registered account and pay interest thereon on such terms and at such rate or rates as it may from time to time establish, until such direction is received by it.

In this case you will cease to be a Subscriber. However, the Plan is not required to be split because of separation or divorce. 19. AMENDMENTS

We may change this Agreement from time to time with the agreement of regulatory authorities, if required. If we do so, we will give you 30 days notice in writing. If we have to amend the Plan because of changes to the Applicable Tax Legislation or other provincial legislation, we will do so automatically and we will not be required to tell you about the change before it becomes effective. No amendments, however, will disqualify your Plan as an ESP.
